TRUSTEES' MEETING

NEW SANITARIUM ORDINANCE PRESENTED—BOND ELECTION ORDINANCE READ

The board of trustees met in regular session at the city hall at 8:10 p. m., November 16, 1916.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Reports of the public service department for the months of August, September and October were presented and ordered to be filed.

A report was received from the tax collector showing collections for the week amounting to $2947.21, a total for the season of $9453.16. The report was ordered to be filed.

Demands were presented and referred to the finance committee.

The city manager reported in regard to the application of the Smith Cyclery for permission to paint a sign on the sidewalk. He expressed the opinion that to grant the same would establish an undesirable precedent, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, the request was denied.

In reference to the application of Mr. Sholes for permission to install a gasoline supply pump in front of a garage on Brand boulevard, reported that the matter had been settled by an agreement between Mr. Sholes and the board of trustees.

The manager of the public service department reported having completed laying of the twenty inch main across the Verdugo wash.

The city attorney made a report in regard to the opening and widening of Eighth street, stating that in preparing summonses for the opening and widening of Sycamore Canyon road, he had asked for bids for printing the same, of which he had received three; that of the Glendale Evening News being the most satisfactory, and in consequence he recommended that the News be authorized to do the necessary printing in connection with the opening and widening of Eighth street. On motion of Trustee Jackson, it was so ordered.

A new ordinance was presented in regard to sanitariums and hospitals. Trustee Woodberry moved that the ordinance previously read for the first time and laid over, be taken up for second reading. The motion was defeated. Roll call resulting as follows:

Ayes: Jackson, Woodberry.

Noes: Grist, Muhleman, Thompson.

On motion of Trustee Grist, "An Ordinance of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, regulating the establishment and operation of hospitals, sanitariums or sanitoriums in said city, and fixing a penalty for the violation thereof," was taken up for the first reading. On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the first time and was taken up for the second reading. On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the second time and was laid over till the next regular meeting for the third and final reading.

The city attorney presented an ordinance calling for a fire bond election.

On motion of Trustee Grist, "An Ordinance Calling for Bond Election for Purchase of Fire Equipment" was taken up for the first reading. On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the first time and was taken up for the second reading. On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the second time and was laid over till the next regular meeting for the third and final reading.

Mr. Cowan of the Glendale News made a request of the trustees that the city furnish him an up-to-date map of the city of Glendale for use in the directory now being prepared by his establishment. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the city engineer was requested to furnish an up-to-date map, one copy for the use of the city clerk and another for the Glendale Evening News.

The city manager made a report upon the communication received by the board at its last meeting from the county sealer of weights and measures in regard to a proposed ordinance for the regulation of the weight of bread loaves, etc. No action was taken.

SCHOOL FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Misses Garnet and Fern Peters entertained a number of their school friends from the intermediate school at their home Tuesday evening.

The evening was spent in outdoor games and a weinie roast followed. Those present were: Misses Garnet Peters, Fern Peters, Naomi Platt, Hettie Orth, Lois Webb, Mercedes Spong, Nellie Rowe, Agnes Thaxter, Avis Thompson, Genevieve Mulligan; Messrs. Stanley Berkey, Don Wells, Robert Stone, McHenry, Holly, Jack Lawson, Elwyn Tipton, William Jones, George Jordan, Edmund Parker.

THE INVISIBLE ELEMENT

GERM OF HARMFUL DISEASE HATCHED IN ANNEXATION INCUBATOR

Every city has an invisible faction—citizens that have mysterious and unseen reasons for advocating certain projects. Just who the first instigators are in giving life to the subjects that come up for consideration by the invisible element is difficult to accurately determine, but the indications are that the germs for the support of this invisible element are propagated in a Los Angeles annexation incubator. What inducement is offered for Glendale citizens to take over these germs and foster them and whenever possible attempt to innoculate other citizens with the germ is a mystery to the man who is not skilled in germology.

Glendale citizens, to the number of 1100 or more, voluntarily ask for an independent postoffice, and the request is granted, which act should receive the sanction of every citizen of the community, but the element with invisible purposes rise up and declare that everything that tends toward the civic and municipal advancement of Glendale must be held in check. An independent postoffice may be all right for Monrovia, Pasadena, Long Beach, Whittier and numerous other cities, but Glendale should put up with the inconveniences of a branch post station.

A regularly appointed postmaster will be upon the same level as postmasters in surrounding cities, and can ask for and get better building accommodations, more modern fixtures, better delivery service. Whittier, a city of less population than Glendale, has three deliveries daily in the business section and two in the residence section. Ten persons besides the postmaster are employed giving service to the patrons of the office.

Glendale, in securing an independent postoffice, is taking a wonderful step forward and a thousand thanks to Congressman Randall for his untiring efforts in thus placing Glendale more conspicuously on the map. The establishing of an independent postoffice in Glendale is an important epoch in the history of the community, and is meeting with the enthusiastic approval of seventy-five per cent of her citizens.

SOCIAL GREAT SUCCESS

A most delightful evening was enjoyed yesterday when between fifty and sixty members and friends of the Glendale Garden society met in the library of the Third street school. A spirit of genial hospitality pervaded the atmosphere, and getting acquainted proved to be a very popular form of entertainment.

Dr. Harrower contributed greatly to the pleasure of those present by rendering some beautiful songs. The doctor is the fortunate possessor of a full, rich voice, and his artistic and sympathetic manner of delivery charmed his hearers. G. B. Miller accompanied Dr. Harrower with much skill, and then gave two pianoforte solos with exquisite taste. That these talented gentlemen are members of the Garden society is a matter of congratulation to all.

Many members brought plants, the exchange of which created much interest. Informal discussions on various plants and horticultural problems were maintained with enthusiasm. Experts such as Professor Houdyshel, C. Woolsey, Morris E. Caruthers and others, being present, much timely information and advice was given.

Later in the evening tea was served in the domestic science room, over which Mrs. J. L. Anderson, Mrs. B. Harrower and Miss Olive Williams presided. Many new names were added to the ever-increasing list of members.

The next meeting of the Garden society will be held on the first Thursday in December, the 7th, when a public awarding of prizes in the bird house contest will be made to the winning boys and girls. A special treat has been provided for this evening in the securing of Prof. A. Cookman of the Long Beach high school, who will lecture on "Our Feathered Friends from the Mountains to the Sea."

WHITTIER POSTOFFICE

At about 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday the editor of the Evening News called the Whittier postmaster by phone and learned that Whittier has a population of 7500 people.

The business section of the city has three mail deliveries daily and the residence section has two deliveries daily—one more delivery in the business section than Glendale enjoys. An independent post office in our city will, no doubt, afford this extra service to the business men.

DEUTSCHLAND RETURNS TO PORT

GERMAN SUBMERCHANTMAN BADLY DAMAGED WHEN RAMMED BY TUG OFF NEW LONDON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 17.—The German submerchantman, the Deutchland, which slipped out of the harbor at an early hour this morning on the return trip to the Fatherland, attempting to cross the path of a tug, rammed her and sunk the tug. Five men were drowned and the Deutchland submerged and returned to port badly damaged. The Deutchland had been in the harbor here since November 1, when she arrived with a cargo valued at $10,000,000. On the return trip to Bremen she was carrying crude rubber, nickel, zinc and silver bars, besides several sacks of mail from the German embassy at Washington.

ENORMOUS INCREASE IN MEAT EXPORTS

GOVERNMENT REPORT ON HIGH COSTS OF FOOD PRODUCTS SAYS DUE TO FOREIGN SHIPMENTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—A government report just issued says that the meat exports have increased 150 per cent. The huge shipments of foodstuffs to Europe are the cause of the prevailing high prices for all articles of food.

ASKS AID FOR STRICKEN EUROPE

PRESIDENT IN THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION ASKS AMERICANS TO REMEMBER SUFFERING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—In his annual Thanksgiving proclamation, President Wilson calls upon Americans to remember stricken Europe and to contribute to the relief of those who are suffering because of war conditions, at Thanksgiving time.

SUBMARINE SEEN OFF PLUM ISLAND

GUN-MOUNTED UNDERSEA BOAT APPARENTLY WAITING FOR DEUTCHLAND TO APPEAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 17.—Reports state that a submarine with gun-mounted decks has been seen off of Plum island, where the Deutchland was expected to pass on her outward voyage. Whether this was a German boat waiting to accompany the Deutchland or a hostile ship is not known.

HUGHES LEAD IN MINNESOTA INCREASES

OFFICIAL TABULATION SHEETS FROM FIFTY-SEVEN COUNTIES ARE NOW IN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 17.—With official returns from fifty-seven counties and unofficial records from the remaining twenty-nine, Hughes' lead in this state has slightly increased.

EXPECT FALL OF MONASTIR

ARMY OF THE ALLIES EXPECTS TO CAPTURE MAIN BULGARIAN BASE IN MACEDONIA

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Serbians moving on Monastir have captured two towns. The allies expect to occupy Monastir within three days. This is the main Bulgarian base in Macedonia and the pivotal point for the entire Bulgario-Teuton line guarding the Orient railway. The last powerful ring of defenses has been battered down like so much paper by the French seventy-fives, and occupied by the French and Serbian troops. The Cerna bend is cleared of Bulgars and Germans and the natural defense of the river is lost to them. The Sofia war office officially concedes the withdrawal from the Cerna positions.

BRITISH ADVANCE NORTH OF ANCRE

ALLIES CONSOLIDATE POSITIONS FOR FURTHER ACTIVITIES IN ANCRE VALLEY THIS WINTER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The British have made a further advance north of Ancre. The allies have now gained an important strategical position by the occupation of Beaumont and St. Pierre Divion and the ridge they dominate, and are consolidating their positions with the intention of pressing the campaign in the Ancre valley at every opportunity the coming winter.

T. R. TO TAKE VACATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Theodore Roosevelt will visit Somos in the South Seas and enjoy the delights of that tropical island while recuperating from his strenuous work in the presidential campaign.

INTERVIEW RANDALL

CONGRESSMAN WILL HEAR BRIEF STATEMENTS IN CANDIDATES' FAVOR

Congressman Randall will be at the high school tomorrow after 10 o'clock, for the purpose of hearing the citizens of Glendale on the question of whom they want appointed postmaster in Glendale.

Congressman Randall will hear only one person at a time, and the hearing will be private, and necessarily very brief, as it is expected many citizens will present themselves in the interests of favorite candidates. Congressman Randall will have no time to listen to lengthy stories. Due courtesy to persons waiting to be heard will prevent this. Be ready to make a brief and emphatic statement whom you favor for the position of postmaster and then pass on unless detained by the congressman to answer questions in which he may be interested.

PEPPER TREE INN RE-OPENED

Up in the foothills in Casa Verdugo, at the corner of Stocker street and Central avenue, is a most delightful family hotel—the Pepper Tree Inn. For a considerable time this hostelry has been unoccupied, but will be re-opened Saturday of this week by R. J. Shugart and wife.

Mr. Shugart is no stranger in Glendale, as he has lived in Glendale for the past three years. Neither is he a stranger to the hotel business, as he has managed some of the largest hotels in the United States. His wife, Madame Shugart, is no less capable, as she has had charge of well known European sanitariums.

The Pepper Tree Inn they intend transforming into a health resort and family hotel, and make a specialty of special Sunday dinners, as well as make it a social mecca for luncheons, dinner parties, etc.

The dining room will be in charge of a lady of eighteen years' experience, and the cuisine will be planned by an adept cook, who has just arrived from Coronado Beach, for the opening of the Inn. Both North Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. Shugart are to be congratulated on the reopening of the old Pepper Tree Inn.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. E. Evans entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon at her home, 113 Orange street, Thursday afternoon. The decorations of the living room were of pink carnations. The guests were invited into the dining room and told to find their places by completing the rhymes found at the places, which created much interest and merriment. The place cards were violets and turkeys, alternating. In the center of the dining table was a glass basket filled with lovely pink rosebuds and violets, this basket being surrounded by four tiny glass vases filled with violets. The favors were long-stemmed pink crepe paper roses, the center of each rose enclosing a nut basket. The color scheme of lavender and pink was carried out in all the decorations of the different courses of the luncheon.

Covers were laid for the following guests: Mrs. Laurence Ellis, Mrs. Wilbur McFadden, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. Lucius Phillips, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. John Hunchberger, Mrs. Chas. Temple, Mrs. A. L. Weaver, Mrs. Emil Tholen, Mrs. A. W. Tower and Mrs. Henry Goodwin.

After luncheon auction bridge was played by the guests and a most delightful afternoon spent.

TRUSTEE WOODBERRY ENTERTAINS

The political complexion of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale is: G. B. Woodberry, Republican, and Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, R. M. Jackson and F. L. Muhleman, Democrats. Prior to the election there was an agreement made that should Hughes be elected president the Democratic trustees would provide a supper for the five trustees, and should Wilson be elected, the pleasure of feeding the crowd would fall upon Mr. Woodberry.

The result of the election placed this agreeable responsibility on the shoulders of Mr. Woodberry and he very generously invited his comrades to Hotel Gray Thursday evening, when all enjoyed a bounteous feast.

The members of Miss Tipton's and Mrs. Johnston's Sunday school classes of the West Glendale Methodist Sunday school will give a musical entertainment this evening at 7:30 in the church. A free-will offering will be taken, the proceeds to be used for home missionary work. All are invited.

AT GLENDALE HIGH

JUNIORS ARE SCHOOL CHAMPIONS IN INTER-CLASS DEBATES

As the result of the final interclass debates held this morning simultaneously in the auditorium and east study, the juniors are school champions.

The question for debate was: Resolved, that the U. S. should further restrict immigration.

In the auditorium the sophomore affirmative team, David Johnston and Chauncy Kolts, met Harland Durand and Herbert Scheuner. Catherine Lord, president of the junior class, was chairman.

David Johnston built up his argument with quotations from many prominent Americans and leading authorities on immigration. He declared that immigration has become a menace to our country.

Harland Durand said that America was founded and builded upon immigration. Further restrictions, he said, would violate the fundamentals of American freedom.

Chauncy Kolts stated that the immigration since 1883 has been of a low standard. Europe, he declared to be dumping her idiots, imbeciles and criminals in America.

Herbert Scheuner came back with the prediction that if something is not done America will soon become filled with moral and physical degenerates. This admission took his opponents by surprise, for it was a direct admission of their main point. Mr. Scheuner, however, advanced figures and facts to prove that distribution, and not immigration, was the remedy.

Mr. Scheuner sprung another surprise when he quoted from President Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Scheuner is the president of the Hughes club, and chief opponent of Wilson's policies in Glendale high.

The junior affirmative team, Marion Lehman and Berna Martin, met the sophomore negatives, Merva Scott and James McCluskey, in a duel of wild oratory in the east study. Mansford Barnes presided.

Rending the air with wildfire, Marion Lehman and James McCluskey vied with each other for the school championship in the Billy Sunday stunt. Berna Martin's eloquent oratory won cheer after cheer from his classmen.

Take the immigrant from our nation and we would have little but office buildings and colleges, James McCluskey declared.

Take the immigrant from our nation and the country would be 99 per cent pure, declared Mr. Lehman.

The most sound reasoning of the debate was advanced by Miss Merva Scott of the Sophomore team.

Mr. Root announced that the juniors had won, with four of the six judges.

The judges of the debate were Irving Oliver, Miss M. Knepper, H. C. Joy, R. D. White, Miss E. M. Soper and Mrs. D. Wilson.

Despite the auto races at Santa Monica, several students attended school yesterday.

In fact, surprisingly few absences were recorded. Warnings have been hurled frequently during the past few days by various members of the faculty. Then, too, quarterly examinations are entirely too important to miss just for the sake of seeing the race demons roar by in their big speed wagons and smelling the odors of burning rubber.

Besides, those who were fortunate enough to witness Mr. Howe's graphic description of the American revolution will never regret that they remained in Glendale.

A senior class meeting was held yesterday afternoon. Paul Diffenbacher was elected assistant business manager of the Stylus to succeed Paul Williams, who has been forced to resign because of the work he has undertaken as assistant to Harold Nye, school electrician. An announcement was made that the rehearsal for the senior class play will begin soon, and that it will be given the latter part of March instead of during commencement.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

The civil service commission of the county of Los Angeles will hold an open competitive examination for pathologist at the county hospital on Tuesday, December 5, at 8:30 a. m., room 1007, Hall of Records. One position is to be filled and an eligible list created. The salary is $200 per month and one meal a day.

An examination for adding machine operator will be held Friday, December 22, at 6:30 p. m. at the same place. The commission desires an eligible list from which appointments may be made if necessary. The salary is $3.50 to $4 per day.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, NOVEVMBER 17, 1616

GERMANS ENGAGE IN CAVE WARFARE.

The caves, cellars and vaults built by the Hugenots in the province of Santerre in France both for refuge and for concealing their valuables date back to the religious wars which were waged several centuries ago. It is interesting to note that these caves are now being used by the Germans as underground defenses. The subterranean villages in the northern part of Picardy are of a still more antique origin and go back to feudal times. As a rule they are dug into solid rock and the French general staff believes that their existence was not only long ago known to the Germans but long ago counted on as a definite means for clinging onto the soil of France. There is now every reason to believe that the series of underground villages in Picardy is to be utilized largely by the Germans in constituting a new line of defense against the Franco-British drive.

By a combination of circumstances the immense navigable canal which was being dug in the northern part of France when the war began and which was to have been one of France's great inland waterways skirts the district of underground villages on the west and constitutes an additional asset to the Germans for their new line of defense. At the time war was declared this canal was complete and ready to have water turned in. The occupation of the canal by the Germans will make it necessary for the allies to force its complete destruction and the years of time and millions of francs spent in its construction will be swept away.

One of the most famous of the subterranean villages on the banks of the canel is Hermies. The village is dug out of the solid rock and consists of 115 chambers with about 800 alcoves. The entrance to the village is under the tower of the church and its fortification by the Germans will, of course entail the destruction of the church by the allies.

MEET FACE TO FACE

Many misunderstandings would be overcome between man and man if these men could meet one another face to face. One form of sin is misrepresentation and villification. This form of sin was indulged in to a large degree prior to the recent election. There were well meaning men whose every day actions are beyond reproach, but because these men were before the people asking to be elected to office, all sorts of false stories were circulated about them.

The candidates for the presidency were misquoted and slandered. Hughes was falsely reported as being under the thumb of Wall street, and Wilson was accused of being un-American. There is no one in his sober moments who will believe that either of these reports is true. District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles county was a victim of slander. Good, Christian people were made to believe that Mr. Woolwine is opposed to enforcing the law and that he had closed his eyes to open violations of the law. These reports were exaggerated and were known to be false by persons who circulated them, and yet such reports are readily believed by some people.

There were other instances of candidates for office at the recent election being accused of a thousand things of which they were not guilty. It is so easy for irresponsible men to slander men of good character. When these slanderers come face to face with the person whom they are slandering, they stand responsible for nothing—all they have said is merely hearsay. The slanderer is a menace to any community, and the only way is for the accused to meet him face to face and demand him to retract his false statements. The slanderer is always a coward. He does his devilish work after dark or in the back alleys. He is a dangerous citizen and should be held out in the limelight, where it is unfavorable for the breeding of slander germs.

DESTROYING RODENTS.

Ground squirrels and gophers have become a problem to many a California resident who has tried to raise vegetables and flowers only to have them totally destroyed by these pests. The ground squirrel has been found to be not only a destroyer of crops but a menace to health. Bubonic plague, one of the most fatal of all epidemic diseases has been found in the ground squirrels of many California counties and since the disease may be communicated to man by the flea which infests these rodents, their extermination is most important.

Ranchers in Stanislaus county have eradicated a persistent colony of ground squirrels by spreading powdered sulphur on strips of old sacking, rolling them up and soaking them in distillate then placing them in the burrows and igniting them. In Contra Coasta county the ranchers buy poison in large quantities and in San Benito county a number of big ranchers and their employes devoted one entire day to destroying these pests. The wives of the workers served a dinner at the close of the days work and the observance of "Squirrel Day" promises to be a regular affair.

THE PUBLICITY GAME

If the business part of Glendale is not what it should be, it is on account of lack of life in the merchants. The Glendale territory is made up of people who prefer to trade with local merchants, but in many instances the local merchants do not give publicity to what they have for sale. Thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise is bought outside of Glendale every year, all because the buyers do not know that they can buy the articles wanted from local merchants.

The Los Angeles papers advertise in detail what city merchants have for sale, giving descriptions of goods, prices, etc., while in Glendale a large number of the dealers store away goods on shelves and then stand gloomingly at the entrance of their store, allowing people to guess what articles they have for sale. It is indeed a sad spectacle to witness a man invest money in business and then lose out because he does not know how to inform the public what he is prepared to offer in just as good values and at just as low prices as city stores offer.

TREES A GREAT ASSET

The value of trees can be appreciated most where there are none. A country without trees looks barren and it is an undesirable place to live. In the early history of the state of Iowa there were no trees in some sections of the state, and there was passed a state law making a reduction in taxes where the owner of land would plant five or ten acres to trees. In traveling across the country between California and the middle West the most desolate places are those without trees. Plant trees!

Facts and Comment

Wednesday afternoon the troops of the Second California infantry broke camp at Los Angeles and began loading their camp luggage aboard special trains preparatory to leaving for their homes in the north, the trains leaving Wednesday evening.

At this week's meeting of the Pasadena city trustees a resolution was adopted creating a city board of health, composed of the following members: Miss Emily Prior, William Hoyle, chairman of the police committee, health officer and the city engineer.

E. H. McMath has resigned his position as principal of the Polytechnic high school at Santa Ana, having been elected associate professor of education in the University of Southern California. He will begin his new duties on February 1, his resignation taking effect on January 31.

An ordinance was introduced at the council meeting in Pasadena on Monday night regulating the sizes of loaves of bread. When the ordinance goes into effect every loaf of bread offered for sale in Pasadena must weigh either twelve, twenty-four, thirty-six or forty-eight or sixty ounces.

GLENDALE POSTOFFICE

Just at a time when most of the people of Glendale are rejoicing over the fact that our city is promised an independent postoffice, up comes a petition to nullify it. The independent postoffice was secured through the efforts of many citizens and the assistance of Congressman C. H. Randall, who has worked long and hard that we might be benefitted by such an office, for we know that strong pressure was brought to bear in order to accomplish it, as the postoffice department is not overly anxious at this time to spend a large amount of money on a federal building here in Glendale. Such a building will cost about $30,000, and paid for by the government, and can be had when we demand it. We spend many thousands of dollars each year to advertise our city, so why not get all the assistance that it is possible to get and put the city of Glendale on the map?

So when a petition is presented to you to undo all that has been done to improve and build up our city, please cast it aside in order that we may make greater advancement than ever before.

There is not a city in our land but what would gladly avail itself of such an opportunity as this, and we can't afford to do otherwise, so let us push forward and become greater.

H. A. WILSON.

Mrs. H. B. Goodrich of 540 North Central avenue, Tropico, entertained a number of friends for the afternoon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips of 710 West Fifth street left Thursday for San Diego, where they will spend a week as guests of Mrs. Phillip's sister, Mrs. Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moulton of 5075 Montezuma street, Los Angeles, were in Glendale Thursday afternoon. The Moultons own an extensive olive ranch near Sunland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis of 525 Central avenue, Mrs. Louise Swartz of Newton, Kan., and George Blyth of 126 East Tenth street will go to Pomona Saturday to spend the week-end with friends.

Mrs. D. Campbell and Mrs. Frederick Baker spent Thursday at Eagle Rock, attending the bazaar given there by the Eagle Rock Twentieth Century club and taking note of helpful suggestions for local use.

Mrs. Frank C. Price of 466 West Fifth street will leave Monday for San Diego, where she will spend a week visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanven. She will return to Glendale by auto.

Mrs. William Nichols and two daughters, Harriet and Margaret, of Monte Vista apartments attended the wedding of their cousin, Marie Nichols, to Dr. V. Laisne at Dr. Brougher's church Tuesday night.

Mrs. Edward Dale of 1461 Salem street expects her mother and sister to arrive in Glendale next week to spend the winter. Mrs. Dale's mother is in poor health and she is coming to Glendale in the hope that our climate will benefit her.

At the regular meeting of the board of school trustees of Tropico last night, the question of calling a bond election to vote bonds for the improvement of the various school buildings was discussed. The matter was postponed until next meeting, when it will take legal form.

Street work on North Glendale avenue is being rushed and will be opened through to the Verdugo road within a few days. This link, in connection with Brand boulevard when extended through to Los Angeles via Ivanhoe, will make a much shorter route for the Monte Vista valley travel.

J. D. Loucks, who had resided at Sheridan, Wyo., has moved to Glendale and resides at 508 South Louise street. Mr. Loucks says the thermometer registered 26 degrees below zero just before he left Sheridan, about ten days ago. Mr. Loucks thinks he may purchase property in California.

Houston Duane Rich, a nine and a half pound youngster, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Rich, 517 North Avenue Twenty-two, Los Angeles, November 16, 1916. Mrs. Rich will be remembered as Miss Rebekah Carpenter of North Central avenue, Tropico. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rich are receiving the congratulations of their friends throughout the valley.

Mrs. David H. Imler of Palm Villa will chaperone a party of young ladies to the football game between Throop college and Redlands college Saturday afternoon. This will be the fourth conference game and is to be held at Tournament park, Pasadena. The party of young ladies will include Misses Marjory Imler, Katherine Renshaw, Evangeline Hunchberger, Catherine Phillips, Carrie Stone, Esther Schremp and Margaret Boucher of Glendale, and Miss Vivian Amet of Redondo Beach. Eugene Imler of Glendale is manager of athletics at Throop college this year, and William Renshaw, a last year's graduate of Glendale high school, is a member of the football team. Others who will attend the football game Saturday from Glendale are: Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue, Mrs. William Renshaw, Miss Cora Hickman, and Mrs. William Cross of Brawley, who is Mrs. Imler's house guest.

Miss Vivian Amet of Redondo Beach is the house guest of Miss Marjory Imler at Palm Villa for the week-end. Miss Amet will return to Los Angeles Monday, where she is a pupil at the Egan dramatic school.

POSTOFFICE HEARING

Congressman Randall announces that he will spend the entire day on Saturday, Nov. 18, 1916, in Glendale for the purpose of hearing the wishes of our people on the postoffice question, and as to the selection of a postmaster. The hearing will begin at 10 a. m. at the Glendale union high school. It is urged that every interested citizen and organization express an opinion. This will not be a public hearing, but Congressman Randall will hear everyone individually. No choice has yet been made even tentatively, and petitions will have little value. It is desired that our people present in person their recommendations in this matter. tf

XMAS IS COMING

Get busy, boys and girls and others who are not contributing to the churches, and bring your magazines and newspapers to 611 West Broadway and get the money for them as soon as weighed.

APPLICANT FOR POSTMASTER

Glendale, Cal., Nov. 17, 1916.

To My Glendale Friends:

As you are probably aware, Glendale is to have an independent postoffice Jan. 1, 1917, and in the meantime a postmaster will be appointed. At the earnest solicitation of a number of my friends, I have entered my name as a candidate for the office. As we have had several years' acquaintance, if you think I am qualified to conduct the office in an able and creditable manner, I will appreciate your assistance.

Congressman Randall desires to appoint the person who will be most satisfactory to the citizens of Glendale, and for that purpose has arranged a private hearing to be held in the Union high school on Saturday, November 18, from 10 a. m. on. Will you kindly appear at the hearing and urge my appointment on the basis of merit and ability?

I can assure you that I will appreciate any assistance you can render, and so conduct the office that no one will have any cause to regret my appointment.

I shall use my best efforts to secure more comfortable quarters for the patrons, but will not favor removing the postoffice location from the heart of the business center.

Yours sincerely,

JASPER N. McGILLIS.

CONTEST STARTS MONDAY

Much interest was occasioned in last evening's issue of the News by the announcement of the Lyon grocery store's Christmas contest, in which $250 in prizes will be given to the people of Glendale and vicinity. The campaign will start Monday, November 20, and the earlier candidates enter the race, the better chance they will have. The prizes are well worth working for and include: Your choice of $40 in gold or a six months' scholarship in the Glendale Commercial School; $20 in gold or a three months' scholarship in the Glendale Commercial School; a $22.50 lady's gold wrist watch; a $13.50 lady's gold wrist watch, or the equivalent in trade at the Lyons grocery, and the fifth and last prize $5 in gold.

Much enthusiasm has already been shown by patrons of the store who have phoned in their willingness to aid some enterprising young person, and a few contestants have expressed their intention of entering the race for prizes Monday, but there is an ample opportunity for many more to start. Votes will win and votes are given free with merchandise coupons. There will be no losers as every candidate entering this campaign who fails to win a prize will receive five per cent commission on all coupons sold, provided they make a cash report each week.

ART AND TRAVEL SECTION

The art and travel section of the Thursday Afternoon club will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. C. W. Kimberly, 345 South San Fernando road, Tropico, on Wednesday afternoon, November 22. The subject for that afternoon will be "A Trip to Honolulu." The section travels for this year are to the Orient, and the first day's trip takes them to Honolulu.

The 48 states are now spending $280,000,000 a year on good roads.

BIRD AND FLOWER CLUB

Members and friends of the Bird and Flower club will meet Saturday as usual at headquarters, 1111 Broadway, at 11:45 sharp. A trip will be taken to the foothills at the extreme northern end of Louise street. Lunch will be eaten in the grounds of La Ramada.

The following Saturday, the 25th inst., being the last Saturday of the month, no afternoon trip will be taken. Instead the monthly party will be held at the residence of Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford street, from 7 to 9 p. m. During the month of December the Bird and Flower club will hold no meetings. So that the trip tomorrow will be the last trip until January comes.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

The Thursday Afternoon club held a very interesting meeting yesterday at the city hall in Tropico, which, as usual, was very nicely decorated for the occasion, the ladies taking a particular pride in making their place of meeting attractive on these occasions. The program was furnished by ten of the manual arts school pupils, under the direction of Miss Lucy Hisle, who is in charge of the music and literary societies of the school, and consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, fancy dancing, readings and a pantomime by two of the young men of the school. Mrs. Edgar Frye was the chairman of the afternoon and she was assisted by Mrs. Leslie Eames, Mrs. H. H. Davenport and Miss Ida Myers. The club is planning a vaudeville entertainment for the near future.

ALL BIRDS

The wife of a Methodist minister at Spartanburg, W. Va., has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robins, her second husband Sparrow, the present Quale.

There are now two young Robins, one Sparrow and three Quales in the family. One grandfather was a Swan and another a Jay, but he's dead now and a bird of Paradise. They live on Hawk avenue, Eagleville, Canary Island, and the fellow who wrote this is a Lyre and a relative of the family. It's owl right, too. Let's go out on a lark.—Exchange.

Speedy and Easy Riding

There's little comfort in most low priced cars. You can't use their speeds. They jostle you—they ride roughly—they don't hold the road.

The $635 Overland is different. It is not only the speediest of low priced cars—

But you can use the full speed of its powerful motor when you need it.

It has long 42-inch, easy riding, shock absorbing cantilever rear springs. In addition the 75 B Overland is a longer car—104-inch wheelbase. And it has 4-inch tires.

Its smoothness and ease of riding at any speed would do justice to a much larger and heavier car.

Come in and let us demonstrate. That's the best kind of proof.

LA CRESCENTA

The Ladies Aid of La Crescenta gave a most delightful musical program on the evening of Nov 10th, in connection with a china shower. All seemed to anticipate the need of dishes and responded liberally.

By the kind efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Hugergeil we had a splendid addition to the program. A vocal teacher from Whittier Reform School, together with two talented young men from this institution, gave us some choice vocal selections, which were enjoyed by all. Miss Dorothy Maygrove, daughter of our new orchestra leader, with Miss Ethel Lewenstein as accompanist, showed wonderful ability in playing the flute. Miss Lowenstein also played a solo, "The Flatterer", a composition known to many, and appreciated by all. A piano solo by Roberta Hopping was much enjoyed.

A vocal duet by Irene Hall and Roberta Hopping, a piano solo by Dorothy Cookson, a selection by Florence Bruce, all showed credit to our home talent. Mrs. Shultz followed with recitations, "Nine Little Goblins," "The Raggedy Man" and "Our Hired Girl," which lent a variety to the program. Mr. Maygrove came later and closed with a cornet solo. Refreshments were served as usual.

We regret to know that Mrs. Andres and her daughter, Virginia, are leaving us. Mrs. Andres will visit her brother in New York, leaving her little daughter in school at Kansas City, their old home, for the remainder of the school year. Mrs. Salisbury will join her daughter later.

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet Friday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 P. M. Mrs. Haw, president of W. C. T. U. of Los Angeles, will give an address on "Training a Child for Citizenship". Everybody invited.

TO SAVE GAS IN COOKING

Have the article ready and on the burner before the gas is lighted. Light the match, turn gas cock on full and apply match.

If lighted slowly, and gas pops or gives a yellow and blue noisy flame, it means imperfect combustion. The gas should be quickly turned out and properly relighted to give a blue flame.

As soon as the liquid begins to boil, turn the gas down until there is just enough heat to keep it boiling.

Use the simmering jet whenever possible. It supplies sufficient heat to keep a large kettle of warm water boiling.

In most baking, turn out one oven burner or lower both after the first 15 minutes.

A small oven set on top of the stove over one burner, for baking small quantities, will reduce the gas bill.

SUNLAND

Frank Roberts and family motored over from Covina and spent the day with their uncle, C. C. Harding.

Mrs. Frank Corey of the Monte Vista Tavern is taking a much needed vacation. She left Wednesday for San Diego, to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turner of Los Angeles visited at the home of Geo. E. Huse Sunday. Mr. Turner has not been in Sunland for seven years and was surprised at the vast improvements in the valley.

Mrs. J. I. C. Spencer spent Monday in Los Angeles, shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haflinger and sons spent the week-end in Los Angeles. It is reported Mr. Haflinger purchased a new car while in the city.

Lyman Maxwell, a former resident of Sunland, died at his old home in Illinois November 7th at 7 a. m. His wife and daughter, Louise, were with him when he passed away.

Mr. Haflinger resigned as member of the school board, and Mr. Lancaster was appointed to fill the vacancy.

"Rancho Hinata" (Sunshine Ranch), Dr. Spates' lovely home, to which the doctor has given so much time in developing it to its present attractive state, will be the permanent home of Dr. and Mrs. Spates in the future. The doctor is an ardent lover of nature and our valley, and is one of our pioneers, but heretofore has been unable to spend much of his time here, but now both he and Mrs. Spates hope to be able to become more closely identified with our local affairs.

C. B. Johnson received the sad news of the serious illness of his aged father at Turlock Sunday night.

The Foothills Valley Federation

In spite of the windy night, a good attendance greeted the first meeting of the Foothills Valley federation at Sunland November 13.

Fred Prince, president of the San Fernando Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Douglass, president of the First National bank, represented San Fernando. Mr. Dodge, mayor of South Pasadena and supervisor-elect, was present.

Music was furnished by the band, which was highly complimented by the visitors.

La Canada was well represented and La Crescenta by one lone delegate, while Tujunga was present with a full delegation.

S. D. Percey, president of the local chamber of commerce, called the meeting to order and welcomed the visitors. Mr. Ashby, president of the federation, then took his place and presided with his usual ability. After a short business session, light refreshments were served, after which addresses were made by Mr. Prince and Mr. Dodge, which were enjoyed by the listeners. More music was rendered by the band, and some pleasing remarks by the president of the La Canada Improvement club. Then adjournment after a very pleasant and successful initiation of the new federation.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening—subject "How to Be Strong," led by Mrs. Wister—was one of enthusiasm, which the young people all enjoyed. Next Sunday's topic is "Why Christianity Is the Hope of Our Country." Leader, William Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchner and two daughters motored from Pasadena Sunday to see Mrs. Lancaster.

Come to the First Baptist church next Sunday evening, from 7:30 to 8:30, and hear a good sermon by Rev. C. N. Wester. Special music by the church orchestra led by Professor Maygrove.

Miss Margaret McNab and Ingvald Davidson of Pasadena were the guests of Miss Marea Lancaster over Sunday.

Miss Flora Abrum of Los Angeles is the guest of Miss Margaret Cahill this week.

C. C. Nicholdson and J. J. Miller were the victims of quite an accident Tuesday. The strong wind had blown down a portion of the packing house, and Mr. Miller and Mr. Nicholdson were trying to repair the damage, when the whole roof collapsed and buried the two men. Mr. Miller escaped with a bad cut on his head. But Mr. Nicholdson was badly crushed. Dr. Thomson was called and sewed up the gash in Mr. Miller's head, and after examining Mr. Nicholdson, found no bones broken, but the ribs badly bent, and his body quite badly bruised. The doctor thinks he can bring him through all right. This was a narrow escape for the two men.

The outgoing mail at the Sunland postoffice closes at 9:30 a. m. since the carrier has put on an auto route. Patrons please bear this in mind and get your letters to the office in time.

LA CANADA

Connor-Green Wedding

One of the prettiest social events that has occurred in the valley for a long time was the wedding at the church last Saturday evening, when Miss Margaret Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Green, became the bride of Harry Connor of Venice, Cal. The church had been fittingly and beautifully decorated for the occasion, wall baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums joined with ropes of asparagus fern produced an exceptionally charming effect, while the altar, banked in potted ferns, formed a pleasing background for the bride's attendants in their pastel shaded gowns and their bouquets of white carnations and greenery.

When the guests had assembled, Miss Lulu Lanterman, accompanied by her sister, Miss Harriet Lanterman, sang in her sweet way "O Promise Me." And following this song, the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the bridal march played by Mrs. Paul Eilers. First came the matron and maid of honor, Mrs. Max Green in yellow satin with silver trimmings and Miss Rowena Green in green satin with an overdress of net and edged with white fur. Following them came the officiating ministers, Dr. Scott and Rev. Brooks; the groom with his best man, Edwin Cooper, and little Helen Heinman, flower girl, who was dressed in white and carried a basket of white rose petals, which she scattered in the path of the bride, who followed on the arm of her brother, Max Green. The bride was most charming in a gown of white satin with net overdress, with long train and veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. Following the bride came the four bridesmaids, Miss Lulu Green and Miss Helen Kennell in pink with silver trimmings, Miss Helen Cooper in green with net overdress and white fur trimmings, and Miss Kathryne Green in yellow with silver adornments. The bridal party formed a pretty picture grouped about the altar as Dr. Scott read the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Brooks.

Following the ceremony, the guests, who were the relatives and close friends of the bride and groom, adjourned to the adjoining room, which had been decorated in yellow chrysanthemums, and where an informal reception was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Connor have gone to housekeeping in a cozy bungalow at Venice, where the groom is connected with the postoffice and where the best wishes of the many friends of the bride throughout the valley follow her.

PICTURESQUE OXEN

In these days of "efficiency," the picturesque oxen are fast disappearing before the clattering tractor. It is only in the byways of the country, where men live as their fathers did, regardless of the ways of the world, that these lumbering creatures still plod the roads and fields.

Real Block Island, not the Block Island the summer visitor sees, but the innermost heart of the little isle, is an agricultural district, writes a contributor to Our Dumb Animals. And here, partly because of the poor roads, and partly because they have "always been there," oxen still are seen.

Occasionally one of the antiquated turnouts comes trundling down to the docks—a crude wagon drawn by a stolid team, prodded into activity by an owner as picturesque as the outfit. And about it flutter the hotel guests "oh-ing" and "ah-ing." The scene is an interesting study in contrasts.

There are some splendid teams on the island, big, brawny animals, heavy and hard, with sleek coats shining like satin. One of their chief uses explains why they have not been replaced by horse or motor. The pounding ocean piles up on the beach every year tons of seaweed. This the frugal farmers collect to use as fertilizer or as ground cover in the pigsties. On the sandy shores a motor truck would fare very badly. And if a wagon loaded with seaweed were to sink deep in the soft sand a horse would find it hard pulling, indeed. And so ox teams are still common on this little island only a few miles from Newport—still maintained because they fill a need which no modern invention fills as well—efficiency, after all.

THE GIRL'S GOOD FAIRY

It is said of a girl back east that a good fairy seems to have attended her always. From her babyhood up she has had every wish gratified. As to money expended for her there was no limit. For her, all the dreams that girlhood may have, came true. Now she has the crowning joy of wedding a real prince from Italy. This is mentioned in accounts of her as the ultimate happiness this side the pearly gates.

To me it seems that the girl has led a singularly useless and wasted and dreary existence. It is not clear how a life devoid of ambition, and the necessity for effort, could be endurable. Even the capture of an Italian prince is a dubious triumph. Other women have acquired princes, at great expense, and been glad to get rid of them at additional expense.

In this world it is essential for everybody to have something to do. The girl born to vast wealth, and not especially endowed with intelligence, so as to be able to employ her money sanely and beneficially, of course still has some advantages over the girl who has to toil in a sweat-shop, but the sweat-shop girl has some chance to develop into a social equation of value, while the poor rich girl hasn't a ghost of a chance.—Exchange.

HE WAS ON THE JOB

The undertaker arose and said to the mourners assembled:

"If anyone present wishes to say a few words of tribute of the deceased, now is the time when the family will be glad to hear such."

A stillness prevailed, and after a a few moments of silence it was broken by a young man, who arose and asked:

"Do I understand that no one wishes to make any remarks?"

"It would appear so," replied the undertaker.

"Then," asked the young man as a light came into his eye, "may I be permitted to make a few remarks about Southern California and its wonderful climate?"

"Look here," said the wife, reading a newspaper. "I see from statistics given here that every third baby born in the world is a Chinese."

"Yes?" said the husband. "Then thank the Lord that this is our first."
